Bus Pick Up/Drop Off and Bus Parking Information

The pick-up and drop-off point for the Peabody Museum is behind the museum on Oxford Street. Look for the bus drop-off sign and bus stop in front of the McKay Laboratory (building with hundreds of windows). The secondary pick-up and drop-off point is further down Oxford Street in front of the Science Center and is also marked. Both points are adjacent to crosswalks. See map “School Bus Route to the Peabody Museum.”

The group should follow the signs and use the map “School Bus Route to the Peabody Museum” to walk to the Peabody Museum entrance.

Once the bus has dropped off the group, the driver should proceed to Harvard’s bus parking area at the Harvard Stadium in Allston (see map below).

Directions from the drop-off point on Oxford Street to the Harvard Stadium:

At the end of Oxford Street turn LEFT onto KIRKLAND ST, then take the first RIGHT onto QUINCY ST.
